

Casper's 3rd Birthday: An Automobile Celebration!

15 November 2017

The children made Casper a ninja out of cardboard, black paint & tape, and googly eyes since he was Kylo Ren for Halloween and seemed to really enjoy being a character dressed in all black. Casper smiled when he unwrapped his gift! On his special day, many worked together to build a maze of roads and tunnels for their cars. Casper's dad, Jeff, came and read some books to the class. Happy 3rd Birthday, Casper!
