

Thursday, August 13

This year at The Nest we have decided to dedicate some time working with clay. Each class will explore at their level throughout the year. The Blue Jays have already been introduced to some tools and the techniques, and today we added a jar of water to dip our fingers in and wet the clay. We had so much fun “erasing” patterns with our fingers!

