

Mystery Music Visitor: Chris Berney!
12 November 2015

Caroline's husband, Chris, stopped by The Nest with his guitar today. The Hummingbird class thought it was the best! All the children sat on the Big Green Rug and were rapt with attention at his singing and guitar strumming. Wren encouraged everyone to clap their hands; Axel had the sweetest smile on his face as he watched and listened.

After their snack, the Blue Jay class joined us on the rug. Everyone thought dancing during the music and then freezing when the music stopped was super fun! The children gave a rousing rendition of the ABC song; Chris also played such hits as Old MacDonald, Mary Had a Little Lamb, and Knick Knack Paddywack. He also played a tidbit from the Violent Femmes. We encourage any parents to come by The Nest to play an instrument or sing to the children. They would be overjoyed!
