

Yesterday, February 23rd, we projected images of airplanes taking off and landing. The children immediately lined their chairs up to board the plane. Evelyn began shouting, “Choo choo! We’re on a train!” to which Eden responded, “no we not!” Regardless, the plane kept choo-choo-ing on as we continued our flight. Today, February 24th, while we spent time on the playground, several large planes loudly flew over the Nest. Eden pointed up to one of the planes excitedly.
