

Anyia's 5th Birthday: A Hat Celebration

For her 5th birthday, Anyia requested a “hat” party. Her friends sang to her as she blew out a birthday candle (above). The children also enjoyed yummy cupcakes brought by Anyia’s mother.

In the morning, the children engaged with a “hat making station” to make both pointy hats and “crown style” hats (above). At morning meeting, we read a book called, “The Magic Hat”.

Happy Birthday, Anyia!
