

Eleanor's 3rd Song and Dance Birthday!

January 18th, 2017

Eleanor's birthday candle!
She loved the pansies,
and shared them with Tashi!

Eleanor's friends created a
"shaker" for her as a gift.
They painted it black, added sparkles, then mod-podged on some natural materials including leaves and flower petals from an orchid plant.

For Eleanor's birthday, she suggested a song and dance party! We spent the day listening to songs, singing Eleanor's favorite tunes, and of course dancing! Charletra also joined in on the fun!
