

Josie's 3rd Birthday Celebration

31 March 2017

A Silly Chocolate Milky Day!

When asked, Josie said she wanted a birthday party with chocolate milk so that's just what we did! Her mommy, Leah, came and read us a few books, including Kitten's First Full Moon where the kitten thinks the moon is a bowl of milk. All the children were delighted to drink organic chocolate milk and watch Josie open her gift: a chocolate milk cow! Garrett, from the Orange Room, also came and played music. Yay!
