

Mystery Reader: Aleita's Grandma, Barb

25 April 2017

Today we were visited by Aleita's grandma, Barb, who read to the children during Morning Meeting. Barb used to be a first grade teacher so she came prepared with interesting books to read. She read two books, The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle and Where Is The Green Sheep? by Mem Fox. The children were very excited to point out to Barb the things they liked to eat that the caterpillar also ate such as ice cream, a slice of cherry pie, and a pickle. We always enjoy a visit from a mystery reader. Thank you, Barb!
