

Allie & Quinn's 3rd Birthday:
Firetruck and Strawberry Day!

26 January 2018

Quinn & Allie's whole family came to school to celebrate their special day. Mommy read books about firetrucks and strawberries, and then firefighters came to school in a firetruck! The whole class had fun exploring the truck, touching all of the interesting gadgets and tools, and talking to the firefighters. Allie and Quinn opened their gifts made for them by the children: a doll and decorated drumsticks.

Happy 3rd Birthday, Allie & Quinn!
