

On the Up and Up

The children of the Orange Room have demonstrated great patience over the last 2 weeks. Every day they've passed the new Trampoline on the way to and from the breezeway.

When can we bounce on the Trampoline, Garrett?

Soon! I say.

I'll be in your class soon and we can agree on some rules and then get to bouncing.

Before each child of the Orange Room entered the Trampoline area we made agreements.

- When someone says STOP! We stop.
- No shoes on the Trampoline.
- No pushing or hitting
- No toys while jumping
- No jumping onto friends

Two at a time is so much fun at this age. I've found it hard to make out what they are saying to me as they jump just because there is so much giggling going on!

La La showing off her skills

I don't want to bounce without my friend. –Waverly

Karter and Stella loved to jump to the rhythm of the Acoustic Guitar.
