

Aleita's Rainbow Balloon Birthday Party!

December 19th, 2017

Aleita turns 4 this weekend on December 24th so we celebrated in the happy company of her family! In line with her request, they brought in a bounty of colorful balloons & noise-makers ("blowers") for the children to enjoy. The children bounced them to each other as they floated beautifully & surprised us with exciting pops! Aleita in particular leaped, hopped, & tossed the biggest purple balloon - matching her purple party dress - all morning before enjoying a purple "blower" on the playground.
