

April 18, 2017

Today a group of five children enjoyed another lovely walk in the neighborhood. They picked flowers, conversed while walking hand-in-hand, and played together at the Grant-Ormond Park.

Running the length of the ramp is one of the children's favorite parts of going on a neighborhood walk.

