

Violet's Turns
5 A Mermaid
Birthday Party
March 14th,
2017

As Violet blew out her candle, she reached over to hold Kalei's hand (which made Kalei's heart melt). Violet giggled as it took multiple puffs to stifle the 3 wicks!

Kalei traced the shape of Violet's body (as a mermaid) with an oil pastel on a large sheet of watercolor paper for children to fill in the Violet-mermaid to take home as a gift. When the page was satisfactorily painted, Violet asked for glitter. She gladly shared the glitterification process with Emerson. Finally, the girls fanned & blew the paint dry.

In the playroom, we projected hi-def videos from under the sea. Ruth, Evelyn, & Camryn were particularly engaged. When scuba divers appeared, Leo & Julian jumped off the risers yelling "super-divers!"
